Red Rock Resorts, Inc. Announces Upcoming Launch of "StationPlay"
Online Social Gaming Application Will Provide New Way for Boarding Pass Members to Earn and Redeem Points Along With Industry-Leading Gaming Content

LAS VEGAS, March 07, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Red Rock Resorts, Inc. (NASDAQ:RRR), the manager and majority owner of Station Casinos LLC, announced today that Station Casinos LLC will be launching "StationPlay", a free online social gaming application, in the second quarter of 2017. This innovative application will offer players the opportunity to play--for free--hundreds of their favorite casino games, and the ability to earn Boarding Passpoints redeemable at any of Station Casinos' twenty properties located throughout the Las Vegas valley.

Developed in partnership with GAN plc ("GAN"), a leading developer and supplier of social gaming software, services and content, the application will be fully integrated with Station Casinos' award-winning Boarding Pass Program and will be available on desktop and mobile. StationPlay will also feature industry-leading gaming content, thereby allowing players to enjoy their favorite slot, video poker, table game, bingo and poker products, along with tournament games.

This new application will provide Boarding Pass members an additional benefit under the "My Rewards" component of the Boarding Pass program, which now allows guests to earn points for spend at both gaming and non-gaming amenities. "StationPlay will allow us to provide another great benefit to our Boarding Pass members by allowing them the ability to earn Boarding Pass points through a custom, free-play social gaming experience while at home or on the go," said Staci Alonso, Executive Vice President of Innovation and Administration for Station Casinos.

"We are very pleased to be working with Station Casinos on this state-of-the art social gaming application," added Dermot Smurfit, Chief Executive Officer of GAN. "StationPlay will provide the most authentic gaming offerings available online, designed to bring the thrill of the casino home, while offering guests the same level of superior experience online as you would find at any of Station Casinos' properties," said Smurfit.
